MARCH 2017

Since touring Ireland with family in 2014, I appreciate having March 17th to remember Saint Patrick. One of the quotes of this famous missionary to Ireland reads,

“CHRIST BESIDE ME, CHRIST BEFORE ME, CHRIST BEHIND ME, CHRIST WITHIN ME, CHRIST BENEATH ME, CHRIST ABOVE ME.”

Why should we care to remember these words 1,556 years after his death? Perhaps Saint Patrick's words were his personal expression of the truth in Acts 17:28,

“For in Him we live, and move, and have our being. . . .”

Our Good News Club season is nearing its end. It is easier for our teachers to go through the motions of sharing the Gospel than to take as much time to study the Word of God as they might have six months ago. Before one ministry season completely wraps up, I must be looking ahead to summer projects and the fall banquet. It is easier for me to go through the motions of checking off projects than to remember this ministry is only because of Jesus and rest in Him to accomplish His work.

Would you please pray for the laborers in the harvest field, that we do not become so busy doing the work that we lose sight of the Master? Please pray also for the boys and girls who received Christ as their personal Saviour this year. May they grow ever closer to the One Who is always with them!
